My Knitter's Room

By Pattie Dorf

A room in my house is a colorful sight Yarns piled high, dark and light, Hats, mittens, scarves yet to be, Maybe some to fit me Patterns, markers, needles and books, All come together for a special look, Busy hands, thoughts come to my mind, Knitting for others to be kind, A sure to be mess, Where things are is a guess, A county fair to enter each year, Ribbons to win make it clear, Choices to be

I love my knitter's room.
